

36 in. Magnolia Leaf Hand-built Wreath, Grand Luxe

NGD-3830GR

This large, lush green wreath of Magnolia leaves is versatile and realistic. A part of New Growth Designs' Faux Fresh collection, these lifelike leaves are carefully arranged by hand in the same durable manner a florist would use to arrange fresh cut branches. Each leaf has a waxy gloss finish on the top and a golden suede finish on the underside for a real Magnolia look and feel. Using only the finest materials available, each plant brings the beauty of the natural world indoors without the need for upkeep, maintenance, or replacement.

The wreath is suitable for seasonal outdoor use. A removable green plastic vase, which fits into the patented frame, provides versatility in arranging options. The wreath should not be left in direct sunlight for extended periods of time.
