

Heartwood Steam Piper Birdhouse

HTW-258B

Start with Victorian style and romance. Add in retro-futuristic innovation and glamour. No wonder “Steampunk” has infiltrated everything from fiction to fashion, movies to music. And now you can tickle the fancy of your feathered friends with this Steampunk-inspired creation, featuring galvanized metal roof and accents. The elegant design takes its cues from fantasy, but the superb quality construction satisfies all real-world demands. A new age of avian bliss!
