

Stone Age Concrete Round 4-Way Table Tennis Table

CTT-RD4WY

Designed for feature urban park spaces and fine outdoor entertainment, the round 4-way table makes a perfect addition to any space. It allows for 2-4 players (4 is standard). While similar to Board Tennis, the angles of play are different as each player can hit into any of the other quarter sections of the table. Making for fun surprises, this table keeps the players learning and adjusting to new bounces and plays.
