

Telluride Recycled Plastic Bench - Curved or Straight

REC-MESA

Telluride benches offer a variety of seating options that not only meet many different seating needs, but also add a touch of style and refined elegance with its multiple arrangement possibilities. Position them in a partial or full circle around a central focal point. Follow a winding path or border with a combination of straight and curved benches. Or combine these into your own unique shape. Use these 100% recycled-plastic benches at home, at hotels or resorts, or institutions – anywhere you need outdoor seating. Because they are unaffected by moisture, they will not rot or splinter, thus providing a long-lasting, cost-effective alternative to wood or concrete.
