

Woodard Augusta Ottoman

WDD-S592005

No outdoor furniture set is complete without the Woodard Augusta Ottoman. This versatile piece has gorgeous design elements and thick cushioning for comfort. The ottoman is a perfect as a foot rest, extra seating, or as a small table. Immaculately handcrafted, Augusta has durable wicker finishes and plush cushions that appeal to all.

As firm believers in the art of craftsmanship, Woodard has acquired Whitecraft Furniture, which is the longest-lasting wicker company in the U.S. While wicker is known for its strength and durability, those attributes are overshadowed by the ingenuity and elegance of Whitecraft furniture. Built to last, Whitecraft by Woodard is the beautiful woven patio furniture counterpart to Woodard's wrought iron and aluminum lines.
